

Postgraduate Year Two (PGY2) Pediatric Pharmacy Residency

Application Deadline: January 5, 2026

Kim Lee,
PharmD, BCPPS
Residency Program
Director

Residency Program Positions:

- PGY2 Pediatric Pharmacy
- PGY2 Pediatric Specialty Pathway in Critical Care
- PGY2 Pediatric Specialty Pathway in Oncology

Employment Information

- Duration: 52 weeks
- Positions: 2
- Estimated Stipend: $89,000
- Interview Required: Yes

Benefits

Benefits include health, dental, and life insurance; sick leave; and 10 days paid time off. In addition, residents receive travel and educational leave as well as a stipend to attend and participate in clinical presentations for a minimum of two professional meetings.

Residency Program

Lucile Packard Children's Hospital Stanford is committed to both exceptional patient care and delivering high-quality training experiences for our residents. As a PGY2 pharmacy resident, you will build expertise in pediatric care, expand your clinical knowledge, and develop a philosophy of pharmacy practice.

Our state-of-the-art 394-bed tertiary care referral center includes:

- 110 medical-surgical beds
- 36 Pediatric Intensive Care Unit (PICU) beds
- 36 Cardiovascular Intensive Care Unit (CVICU) beds
- 40 Neonatal Intensive Care Unit (NICU) beds
- 26 inpatient oncology beds
- 24 stem cell transplant beds

Designated as a Level I Pediatric Trauma Center, we offer a diverse patient population to ensure a comprehensive and robust training experience.

Required Learning Experiences

- Hospital Orientation
- Acute Care Pediatrics I
- Neonatal Intensive Care
- Nutrition
- Pediatric Intensive Care I

Longitudinal Experiences

- Administration and Leadership
- Emergency Code Response
- Pharmacy Operations
- Pharmacy Research
- Teaching (with optional Teaching Certificate Program)

Elective Learning Experiences

- Administration
- Ambulatory Cystic Fibrosis and Lung Transplant
- Acute Care Pediatrics II
- Cardiovascular Intensive Care I and II
- Home Infusion
- Oncology Clinic
- Oncology I and II
- Pediatric Intensive Care II
- Perioperative Pharmacy
- Pharmacy Informatics
- Solid Organ Transplant
- Stem Cell Transplant
- Adult Learning Experiences at Stanford Health Care (if available)
 - Emergency Department
 - Hematology or Bone Marrow Transplant
- Development of a new rotation based on resident interest and preceptor availability

Residency Requirements

- Enrolled full-time in the program for minimum of 52 weeks
- Obtain California RPh licensure within 120 days of the start date
- Complete a minimum of 2/3 of the residency as a licensed pharmacist in California
- Complete BLS and PALS certification
- Prepare and present one drug monograph and one medication use evaluation
- Prepare one adverse drug report
- Complete a minimum of five formal drug information responses
- Deliver one case presentation or one continuing education
- Complete one journal club presentation
- Participate in one quality improvement project
- Complete one tip of the week
- Submit an article for the pharmacy newsletter
- Complete all staffing requirements and competencies
- Complete all residency evaluations
- Obtain ACHR for all residency goals
- No level 2 on the competency-based evaluation scale at completion of the residency
- Completion of all required core areas and patient care experiences
- Complete longitudinal research project that includes:
 - Platform presentation
 - Final manuscript of project suitable for publication

About Us

Lucile Packard Children's Hospital Stanford, one of the nation's top pediatric hospitals as ranked by U.S. News & World Report, welcomes pharmacists to join our ASHP Accredited Pharmacy Residency Program.

Stanford Medicine Children's Health, with Lucile Packard Children's Hospital Stanford at its center, is the Bay Area's largest health care system exclusively dedicated to children and expectant mothers. Our network of care includes more than 65 locations across Northern California and more than 85 locations in the U.S. Western region. Along with Stanford Health Care and the Stanford School of Medicine, we are part of Stanford Medicine, an ecosystem harnessing the potential of biomedicine through collaborative research, education, and clinical care to improve health outcomes around the world.

Contact

Kim Lee | (650) 391-8053

Kilee@stanfordchildrens.org

pharmacy.stanfordchildrens.org

